Dear Professor,

I have just now the good fortune to get your magnificent Vorlesungen.

Now I own besides this book your unapproachable Mish. Studien, your Shia & Sunni Polemics and am tolerably acquainted with your most valuable contributions to ZDMG & RHR as well as ER.E. ^{and inst. of Islam} As I wrote to you before & submitted to you a copy of it, I have done into English your Parsien et Islam from R. H. R. Unfortunately I have not yet succeeded in getting the paper on the subject read by you at an Oriental Congress. It is my conviction that something at least of the high & of Parsi origin. Some light will be thrown thrown on the problem when we shall have brought out a translation of the only Pahlavi Law Book we possess viz Madigan's Hazar-dadistan, although Dr. Bartholomae (Heidelberg) who has given very interesting extracts from the Pahlavi has discovered no parallel between the Sasanian & the Moslem legal literature. May I request you to oblige us by a list of your illuminating contributions on the subject. Something ^{or} if it is said in the "Kultur der Gegenwart" something more which I perhaps shall never know.

Indeed, it would be a great pleasure to me personally to compile a bibliography of all that has proceeded from your unrivalled pen on Orientalia. As a Honorary Secretary of this Institute my services are at your disposal. Kindly write to my home address only: "Mazgaon P.O. Bombay"

Yours respectfully & Sincerely

G. K. Nariman
